Motivations

CUMaS has not just been a society, but a community where I have never failed to enjoy the fun of fellowship, and feel the warmth of home. As an organization, CUMaS has been very successful in fulfilling its purposes of representing and integrating Malaysian students in Cambridge. It is my firm belief that CUMaS has immense potential to do even greater things for Malaysians at present, and Malaysia in the long run, and I am committed to playing my part in making this a reality.

Plans

1. Strengthening the Cambridge-Malaysia link

- (i) Partnership with iCUSU's ACCESS Scheme
- (ii) Reaching out to Malaysian applicants early to provide them with essential links and information on Cambridge even before the application process
- (iii) Expand Cambridge awareness events to the North, South, and East Malaysian regions to reach, inspire, and establish links with more Malaysian students

2. Inviting prominent Malaysian speakers

- To inspire, to connect, to enrich
- Targeting prominent Malaysians from all fields who have made Malaysia proud
- Foster a greater sense of ownership through discussion and debate

3. Increasing synergy through collaboration

- Improving the working relationship with other international societies, e.g. CUMSA, CUHCS
- Possibility of combined events which would not possible if embarked on alone, e.g. Halloween, Football/Ultimate Frisbee Tournament
- Increased and more diverse discounts for restaurants and events

4. The fun stuff

- Organize termly swaps to build relations between freshers and the second and third years
- Distribute 'Week 5 Welfare Packs' every term to all CUMaS members
- Enhance programme for the Fresher's Banquet to ensure more meaningful interactions between freshers and seniors

Qualifications

- Founder of the Young Diplomats Society in my College, which went on to win Best International Delegation at the Harvard Model United Nations 2008
- Vice-President of my secondary school's Drama Club
- President of the Youth Division in my church in Johor Bahru
