WHO AM I AND WHY DO I WANT TO BE WELFARE OFFICER?

A first year Law student - I have a sharp eye for detail and am keenly aware that I have to manage my time to maximise what I have.

I want to be Welfare Officer because I believe Cambridge is not just about academics, and want to make sure the Malaysians in Cambridge are well looked after.

WHY WILL I MAKE A GOOD WELFARE OFFICER?

The number one thing is that I understand how important it is to have your needs looked after by someone who really cares. I am attentive to the needs of others and aim to ensure everyone is kept happy (not just alive).

Also, I have an open heart with lots of l-o-v-e and TLC to share. :)

WHAT WILL I DO?

Firstly, my door (or Facebook message box at least) will always be open to anyone who wants to communicate a concern, or just chat.

I will work on the Freshers' Camp in the summer to provide a fun experience not just for the freshers, but for us soon-to-be second years (oh how time flies - soon we will be telling new freshers to stuff marshmallows into their mouths...).

I love the family system here, and will endeavour to give everyone the best match so you will be happy spouses and parents to eager children.

Also, my chocolate love will hopefully translate into more goodies for you (non-chocolate related too) to keep your tummies happy.
