Hello, dear CUMAS members! I'm Ooi Yen Xing (yxo20@cam.ac.uk), a first-year law student at Corpus Christi College, and I'm bidding to be elected as your Welfare Officer for the 2017/2018 term of office. [2nd choice: General Committee]

Why ME?

- I am very organised. Truly. I have alphabetised lists for EVERYTHING. I am efficient and also systematic when it comes to completing tasks.
- I am empathetic, a good listener and a firm believer in tea-and-cookies therapy, so if ever anyone is feeling down, you're free to come knocking on my door for a chat.
- I have experience dealing with long-term stress and anxiety, which means (a) I am adept at handling stressful situations without allowing myself to burn out (b) I can offer useful support to anyone who is feeling overwhelmed by stress or negativity #igotyourback

My Goals:

To play a part in fostering an environment of mutual support and encouragement for both anxious freshers and cynical older-years, all homesick, stressed-out or lonely Malaysians alike, to thrive and flourish in the city of Cambridge that our dreams have brought us to, so that as the lucky members of CUMAS, we can always remember that though we are far from home, we are never truly alone.

I will do my best in the position of welfare officer to look out for every Cambridge Malaysian's welfare so that we all have the opportunity to "NOT JUST BE IN CAMBRIDGE, BUT TO LIVE CAMBRIDGE", secure in the knowledge of an ever-present safety net of Malaysian support.
