

CHOW TEEN JUI for PRESIDENT

Law at Trinity College

tjc73@cam.ac.uk

“Home away from home” is the perfect description of what CUMaS should strive to be. As president, I hope to build familial bonds between fellow Malaysians in Cambridge, as well as promoting Malaysian culture to the wider Cambridge society.

MY EXPERIENCE

- Vice-President (Sunway College A-Level Student Council)
- Director of Meetings (Sunway College Model United Nations Society)
- Conductor (High school symphony orchestra)

KEY ATTRIBUTES

- Responsible
- Flexible
- Sociable

WHAT I AIM TO ACHIEVE

1. INCREASED SOCIAL AND WELFARE ACTIVITIES WITHIN CAMBRIDGE

- Fortnightly makan sessions.
- More sports activities. I propose having a greater variety of sports such as basketball and football.
- Movie nights. The Endgame is near.
- Termly CUMaS formals.
- Swaps with other Cambridge societies.

2. GREATER SOCIAL INTERACTIONS OUTSIDE OF CAMBRIDGE

- Exchanges with other Malaysian societies in the UK, especially for MNights.
- Increased participation in Malaysian games.

3. IMPROVED OUTREACH PROGRAMMES IN MALAYSIA

- Increase the number of outreach programmes in Malaysia, and increase the quality of such programmes especially in East Malaysia.
- Prepare more mock interviews for future applicants.
- Better support system for offer holders.

4. BETTER INTEGRATION

- Improve the CUMaS family system to actively include CUMaS+,
- Ensure that CUMaS family gatherings are held at least once a month.
- Introduce academic groups for every subject.
- Hold reunion dinners for current members and alumni.

PROPOSED BY: Ng Tze Donn
(Engineering, Queens' College)

SECONDED BY: Isaac Teng (Chemical Engineering, Churchill College)

SECOND CHOICE: Secretary